Room with a View: Front & Center Navy Pier Fireworks Spectacular From Sheraton Grand Chicago Guestrooms this Summer

Guaranteed Amazing View of Wednesday & Saturday Night Fireworks Shows through Labor Day, from $209 Nightly

Oversized Family Rooms with Comforts of Home from $269

Chicago, IL – June 21, 2017 – The Navy Pier fireworks spectacular is a Chicago summertime must-see. After a long day, the decision to stay out and watch -- or make your way back to relax -- could be a tough one. Unless you are staying at Sheraton Grand Chicago, which is steps away from the show. With accommodations that boast guaranteed views of the bi-weekly event, guests can watch the explosive action in the comfort of their room – and pajamas if they wish! From $209* a night, Chi-Town guests can take in the fireworks show in the midst of the grand sky above Lake Michigan (perfectly synchronized to music if you choose to view it alfresco).

From now through Labor Day on Wednesday and Saturday nights at approximately 9 pm, guests can be part of the excitement without the crowds... and with a beverage of their choice in hand. Snacks, cocktails, wine and more can be pre-ordered and arrive in time to have an in-room viewing party.

For broods who want to take advantage of late summer bedtimes and prefer to get out and be front and center underneath the magic of illuminated sky, a Family Room is the way to go. An oversized guest room with two double Sheraton Sleep Experience^(SM) beds and a twin sleeper chair pullout is perfect for a family of five. Arguably the most sought-after and useful amenities for traveling families, these rooms include a refrigerator and microwave to make simple meals and snacks in the room easy to serve up for little (and big) ones who are perpetually hungry.
