Chicago, IL – April 29, 2016 – The Chicago Burger Company & Lounge is re-opening in time for the unofficial kick-off to summer, Memorial Day Weekend. In the heart of downtown Chicago, running alongside the booming summertime scene of the Chicago River, this prime waterfront setting is the ideal location to enjoy the sights and sounds of summer with a handcrafted cocktail or craft beer in hand, of course.

The Chicago Burger Company, which opens the first week in May, is one of the original riverfront venues in the city and is complemented by the CBC Lounge, opening Memorial Day Weekend. This unique waterfront location offers what is arguably the best burger in Chi Town, a summertime cocktail menu, eight craft beers and an incredible view of the Chicago River. Open daily, this will undoubtedly once again be a popular spot for after work get-togethers, toasts with friends and family and summertime sun-seekers to enjoy handcrafted, seasonally-inspired libations. The landscaped setting provides the perfect backdrop for enjoying both people watching and Chicago's world famous architecture. The lounge seating, accentuated with fireside tables that illuminate the night, allows guests to take in the best of Chicago.

There are some new additions this year, including:

For the first-time ever, happy hour specials right on the Chicago River. Those who take a river boat tour and show their ticket will receive 20% off all food and beverage (date of tour must correspond with visit).

This dog-friendly venue has a partnership with Mercury Canine Cruises, serving up dog bowls and bones to all of CBC's four-legged visitors. There will also be a canine menu featuring beef and rice combos, and other select kibbles and treats.

CBC is sporting a new counter bar overlooking the Chicago River with extended hours, from 11 am to 11 pm (kitchen until 9 pm). Additionally, new craft beers, including Revolution, Half Acre and other local brews will be on tap.

Located at the Sheraton Grand Chicago, Chicago Burger Company is ideally situated on the Chicago River within walking distance of Navy Pier, fabulous Michigan Avenue shopping, Millennium Park, the Loop business district and more, has long been a Windy City favorite based on its location alone.
